Warning Letter Re; FPPC No. 10/588; Taymyr Bryant, Respondent

Dear Ms. Bryant:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),<sup>1</sup> found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral from the City Clerk of the City of Berkeley that alleged that you failed to file your 2009 Annual Statement of Economic Interests.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that despite receiving a letter from us requesting you file your delinquent annual statement, you nevertheless failed to file.

The Act provides that persons designated in an agency's conflict of interest code must file statements of economic interest when they assume office, annually thereafter and when they leave their position. (Section 87302.)

Your actions violated the Act because as a member of the City of Berkeley's Fair Campaign Practices Commission ("Commission"), you failed to file a statement of economic interests as required by the City's conflict of interest code. Since on June 18, 2010, the City removed you from that Commission, we are closing this matter.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
